RE: University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill – Case No. 00231.

Dear Rick:

The NCAA enforcement staff is in receipt of your May 12, 2017, letter to Mr. Greg Sankey, chair of the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions. In your letter, you reference a May 12, 2017, telephone conversation between you and me. I would like to provide clarity on some of your representations.

In our May 12 call, I informed you of three things:

1. Following the May 10, 2017, interview with Debby Crowder, the enforcement staff had an opportunity to re-analyze matters and decided to leave the allegations as written in the Second Amended Notice of Allegations dated December 13, 2016. I advised you the enforcement staff would review all the parties' responses, as we do in all cases, and discuss the allegations with each party during prehearing conferences pursuant to NCAA Bylaw 19.7.4.
2. The enforcement staff did not believe further investigation was necessary following Ms. Crowder's interview.
3. Finally, should the institution seek a one-week extension for submitting its response, the enforcement staff would take a neutral position.

You then discussed your assessment of Ms. Crowder's credibility and asked for our assessment. While the enforcement staff will obviously continue to review her information, as we do with all interviewees, I was clear that we will not amend the allegations in light of her interview answers.
